

Streamline training for employees, customers, and partners on Salesforce

SAP Litmos LMS provides the most comprehensive and dynamic learning management integration for the Salesforce platform. The SAP Litmos LMS package is a certified Salesforce connector that provides organizations with an unparalleled ability to rapidly deploy, manage, and track training for sales teams, service teams, marketing teams, customers, and partners. This integration takes training administration and training analysis to the next level for the organization and its extended enterprise.

Business value

Boost sales performance with targeted trainings and correlate training data with sales performance

Enhance customer service and customer experiences with on-demand and instructor-led customer trainings

Enable and empower the extended enterprise with partner training and certifications

Measure, analyze and correlate the impact of training with insightful reports and dashboards

Functional Features

Install SAP Litmos for Salesforce and deploy training in the same day

The SAP Litmos app provides pre-configured reports and dashboards in Salesforce

Users can access SAP Litmos courses outside of Salesforce and training data will flow back to Salesforce reports and dashboards

Salesforce users and contacts can be automatically provisioned to SAP Litmos for training

Customer and partner training snapshots exist on Account and Contact pages

SAP Litmos courses are embedded in Salesforce for sales, support, marketing, customers, and partners

“There is a lot you can actually do that you wouldn’t expect. We not only have our SAP Litmos instance integrated for our team in SFDC, we actually used this app and (with some help from their professional services) integrated the SAP Litmos LMS in our partner portal. Installation is a breeze.”
